JOHN W. YERKES, commissioner of Internal revenue, and President Roosevelt's personal representative in Kentucky, whipped into line that portion of the republican party which is opposed to an office-holding machine and completely dominated the republican State convention in Louisville. The platform adopted was a fulsome panegyric on President Roosevelt, for whom the delegates were instructed to vote at the National convention in Chicago. Mr. Yerkes was made temporary chairman without opposition, after which W. O. Bradley, R. P. Ernst, George W. Long and E. E. Underwood, colored, were elected delegates-at-large to the National convention. Col. Morris B. Belknap, late republican nominee for governor of Kentucky, was mentioned only once during the convention.

THE vitality of the canvass of William Randolph Hearst is shown in the fact that it does not seem at all affected by the action of New York which apparently instructed for Judge Parker. Several States have since then either instructed for Hearst or sent unopposed delegations, when it looked like they would have fallen over each other to get into the band wagon after New York's action. The fact is, there is more in the candidacy of Mr. Hearst than many people think or at least will admit. He may not be nominated but he will, in all probability be in position to dictate who will be.

THE republican platform adopted at Louisville is nothing more than servile and fulsome praise of pie hunters for the pie dispenser. Roosevelt is credited with the accomplishment of everything good, including the crops, and is held higher than the deity, who must always be accorded a back seat when the man on horseback gallops to the front. Such flattery and the reason thereof is enough to make a canine cachinnate.

THE papers are saying some mighty nice things about Hon. Harvey Helm, whose chances to represent this district in Congress grow brighter daily. They recognize Mr. Helm's sterling worth and like us, believe that he is the gentleman to nominate. Space forbids a reproduction of all the good editorials written in his favor, but we will print some of them from time to time.

SPEAKER CANNON says that if the republican nomination for vice president were tendered him he would not accept it under any circumstances. The Speaker says he prefers to remain in the House, and will be a candidate for re-election as Speaker if the republicans control.

POLITICAL.

Hearst forces scored a victory in district caucuses preliminary to the Iowa State convention.

R. P. Ernst, of Covington, was elected chairman of the republican State central committee.

William Henry Jones, of Glasgow, was nominated for Congress by the republicans of the third district.

Delegates to the National convention have decided to elect John W. Yerkes national committeeman from Kentucky.

President Roosevelt has appointed Adolph Grant Wolf to succeed Judge Sulzbacher as associate justice of the supreme court of Porto Rico.

Senator Bailey has sold his stock farm near Lexington and will take his horses to Texas where he will continue breeding on an extensive scale.

The subcommittee of the republican National committee has decided to recommend that Elihu Root be made temporary chairman of the convention.

President Roosevelt is said to have intimated that if he is unable to get a first class man to run the republican campaign he will take charge himself.

As the result of the explosion of a powder mill near Newport, Ind., four men were killed and two injured, and property was destroyed in the sum of $7,000.

Angus W. Cannon, Jr., stated at the Smoot investigation that he had perjured himself in testifying that President Smith, of the Mormon church, had performed plural marriages.

Judge Parker is not the only candidate who has kept his mouth shut on political issues. In 1896 McKinley remained silent on the silver question until he wrote his letter of acceptance.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Services at Baptist church Sunday morning and evening as usual. Morning subject, "A Happy People." Services begin at 11 o'clock. Evening subject "What Doth Hinder Thee." Services begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. O. M. Huey contributes the following: I closed a delightful meeting at Hazard (county seat of Perry county and 40 miles from Jackson, from which place I had to ride horseback) with 25 additions. The meeting only continued seven days. This is the greatest mission field I was ever in. It is the seat of the French-Eversole feud of several years. While there they had one examining trial for murder, and now have a comparatively quiet county. No whisky is legally sold and the "moonshine" business is about broken up. We have a new Baptist school building just about finished, costing about $5,000. School is conducted by Rev. A. S. Petry, who heretofore used such buildings as he could secure and had 200 in attendance during last term. He hopes to open in the fall under more favorable conditions and with about 300 students. The young men and ladies are a fine class of students. They sacrifice and study and are determined to make something of themselves. Hazard is in the midst of a population of 70,000 that is almost without religious privileges. It was a pleasure to labor among them and I give God the praise for the wonderful blessings we enjoyed. Hazard is on a boom. All mineral lands are being bought and they are looking for a railroad and then Jackson had better look out.

HIGHLAND.

Everybody is planting corn this week.

Died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. F. Lee, near Crab Orchard, Uncle Johnnie Baugh, aged about 90 years. His remains were laid away in the cemetery at Mt. Moriah.

Herman Reed, who has been confined to his room since Christmas, has improved so as to be able to walk about in the yard. Mrs. C. M. Young has been quite ill for the past 10 days.

Messrs. A. L. and Ed L. Young left this week for New Albany in search of employment. Mr. Green Young, of Pulaski, was visiting his brother, A. B. Young, and other relatives last week. Miss Emma Godbey, of Bethel Ridge, is assisting Mrs. C. M. Young in the millinery business. Brac Godbey, of Joyce, visited C. M. Young, Sunday.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Heshand, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm; after a few applications she said it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by W. N. Craig.

The Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park was won by Irish Lad. Toboggan was second and Beladame third. Sixty horses were consumed in a Chicago fire.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Former Lieut. Gov. Hindman was thrown from his buggy and seriously hurt at Columbia.

Squire James Hopper, a well known citizen of Russell county, and for many years a magistrate, is dead.

The handsome country home of E. F. Ripy, near Lawrenceburg, was destroyed by fire entailing a $5,000 loss.

William Johnson, who is charged with trying to assassinate Alex. Lucas at his home, near Parksville, is in jail at Danville.

James Ben Thompson, a farmer living in Marion, who fixed a shotgun to shoot a thief, forgetful of the act, was the first to lose his life by the trap.

W. E. Bradshaw, a stock dealer of Columbia, was seriously injured by a kick from a mule. His chinbone and jawbone were fractured and he is in a critical condition.

The residence of John Heiroulmou, near Floyd's Switch, Pulaski county, burned, together with contents. Loss about $2,000, with no insurance. The origin of the fire is not known.

A Washington dispatch says: A fraud order has been issued by the postoffice department against Shoemaker & Company and R. L. Litey, of Harrodsburg. It is charged that the company which, the inspectors say, consisted of only Litey, advertised to sell breeding and pedigreed cattle, hogs and poultry, and after getting big money, pleaded delay from one cause or another, and then sent cheap stock.

MATRIMONIAL.

At Eaglehart, Ind., John Harris and Miss Sallie Smith, each 15 years old, were made one.

Coleman May and Miss Mary Hoover were quietly married at the Catholic church in Danville.

Joseph M. Acton, a widower of 35, and Miss Arvelia Roberts were joined heart and hand at J. T. Roberts' Monday.

Whooping Cough.

"In the Spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think it is the best remedy I have seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by W. N. Craig.

PRUITT BROS.,

UNDERTAKERS AND FURNITURE DEALERS LIVERY IN CONNECTION, MORELAND, KY.

SAM BAUGHMAN.

This well-known jack will make the season of 1904 at my farm, the Fleener place, near Turnersville, at eight dollars to insure a living colt. He is close to 16 hands, is black with mealy points and is a sure foal getter. B. F. CAIN, Turnersville, Ky.

GILT EDGE, JR.

Saddle stallion. Dark bay, 16 1/2 hands high, has proven himself a breeder of first-class saddle horses. He was sired by Gilt Edge, he by On Time. First dam by Denny's Drennon, 2nd dam by Onstotts Telegraph, better known as the Ballard horse.

Gilt Edge, Jr., will make the season of 1904 at my stable, one mile from Preachersville, on the Preachersville & Stanford pike at $6 to insure a living colt.

D. M. ANDERSON, Preachersville, Ky.

EAGLE BIRD.

The mighty son of the great king eagle. Eagle Bird as a show stallion has but few equals. He won the $500 stake at Lexington, Ky., defeating some of the greatest horses that Kentucky has ever produced. Eagle Bird, as a sire of good colored, high finished horses, is not surpassed. His colts are in demand and are selling for high prices, either for business or breeding purposes. Will make the present season at the stable of his owner, two miles west of Stanford on the Shelby City pike at the low price of $10 to insure a living colt. Parting with the mare forfeits the insurance. JAS. H. WOODS, Stanford, Ky.

NABOTH JR.

Naboth is a beautiful dark bay with heavy mane and tail, with good bone, plenty of style and finish and has extreme high action and if worked would step as fast as old Naboth, his sire. He is over 16 hands high, weighs 1,125 pounds and only 5-years-old this May. He is sired by the well-known Naboth. First dam by Messenger Chief, Jr., 2nd dam by Crit Davis, 3rd dam Thoroughbred. Naboth will make the season of 1904 at our stable in Stanford at the low price of $12.50 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled or mare parted with. Mares traded or removed from this county, forfeits the insurance and the money is due. Naboth is considered by the best horse-men to be the best horse in Kentucky to breed to for high-class harness horses. See him before you breed. J. R. BEAZLEY, Stanford.

Messenger Denmark!

By Cotton's Messenger Chief, he by Old Messenger Chief, dam by Arch Walker's Pat Denmark. Will stand at $5 to insure a living colt.

JIM PORTER,

Seven-year-old Jack, 15 1/2 hands high, proven breeder and a splendid individual; known as the Silas Anderson jack. Will stand at seven dollars to insure a living colt. Both will make the season on Silas Anderson's farm. Mares traded or moved out of the county without notifying me makes money due. No responsibility for accidents. W. M. SPRINKLES, Rowland.

KING EAGLE.

King Eagle is 15 hands 3 inches high, dark bay, goes all the gaits with plenty of speed, style and action, sired by Royal King. 1st dam by Eagle Bird; 2nd dam by Red Lion; 3rd dam by Harris' Denmark, he by Miller's Denmark; 4th dam by Jim Bell, thoroughbred.

NOTE.—Royal King was sired by the great On Time and is a brother to the great Silver King and Allie G., the great show mare that sold for $1,000. King Eagle's 2nd dam is the dam of Minnie Boyd, the great show mare that Matt Cohen won everywhere with in 1898 and sold for $300.

King Eagle will make the present season of 1904 at my stable 2 1/2 miles west of Stanford on the Shelby City pike at the low price of $10 to insure a living colt. Will also stand the great mule and jackot Jack, Billy Keene, at $10 for mares and $20 for jennets to insure a living colt. Billy Keene was sired by the great Tom Keene. 1st dam by the imported Palermo, 2nd dam by Levi Hubble's Prince, the sire of Joe Blackburn and Brignolia. Billy Keene stands full 16 hands high, black with white points, and as a breeder he is unsurpassed as a mule or Jennet Jack. His colts will show for themselves. Will also let that great young Jack, Jim Keene, serve a few outside mares at $10 to insure living colt.

Mares traded, parted with or bred elsewhere forfeits the insurance and money becomes due at the time of such transaction. For further particulars call on or address S. T. HARRIS, Stanford, Ky.

DORSEY GOLDDUST 12052.

FULL BROTHER TO ESTELLE 2:19 1-4

Sired by Zilcadi Gedard 4:00—by Goldust 1:50, and he by Vermont Morgan, (Dorsey Goldust's grand dam on sire's side was by the imp. Arabian Stallion Zilcadi.) His dam is Florence, by Golden Mingo Chief, a son of Gaff's Morgan, making him intensely mixed Morgan. Station descended from Justin Morgan on both sides. The best family of road horses ever known.

Dorsey Goldust is a dark dappled bay, full 16 hands and weighs 2,000 pounds; a proven and uniform breeder of high-class road and eastern horses, combining all the qualities for saddle and harness and are in demand at top prices. Bred in the Champion saddle and combined gelding of the American Horse Shows of 1902-3. Jack O. Diamonds stands to his credit, 10 of his colts sold last year for $10,000, and $1,000 was refused for a walk-not mare by him. His services are offered for less than any horse of his producing qualities in Kentucky. Will stand at my farm near Stanford.

$20 TO INSURE A COLT

French Coach Stallion. QUASI NO. 2127.

In French Coach Stud Books of America, also in Republique Francaise Haras Nationaux No. 12863. Winner of first prize at the National Universal Exposition, Paris, 1889-90, competing with over 50 stallions in show.

Imported by W. H. Tichenor & Co., of Chicago, in 1894. Color bay; black points, small star, 16 1/2 hands high, weighs in working order 1,350 pounds. Sired by the French Government Stallion, France, dam Charrante by Le Dord, and dam by Revolution (extended pedigree framed)—Quasi has never been beaten in the show ring. A sure breeder of large, fine, high style and big acting colts and very kind to handle. I invite the attention of breeders to my colts by him to be seen on my farm, 30 of his get out of all kinds of mares.

Quasi will make the present season of 1904 at my stable 2 1/2 miles from Stanford on the Hustonville pike at $15 TO INSURE A COLT.

Money due when colt drops or mare parted with by breeder. Mares kept at $600 per week on grass; no responsibility for accidents or escapes. The best of careful handling given and no accidents so far.

Tom Keene, Jr.

Will make the season at same place at $5 to insure a colt. This jack is almost a counterpart of his sire and from his breeding should prove a high class mule jack. Old Tom Keene, his sire, had no superior and breeds on through his colts. His 1st dam is by Cleaver, and by Giant, 3rd by West End, 4th by Great Western.

F. REID.

Address Stanford or Danville.

JOHN BRIGHT, JR., & CO.

Season 1904--Wood Lawn Stock Farm.

RED LEAF,

(4-year-old record 2:22 in 9th heat over 1/2 mile track.) Sire of 3 with records better than 2:30. Champion show horse of Kentucky and leading sire of high-class road horses and teams.

$25 to Insure a Living Colt and a Good One at That.

I claim it is to the best interest of the owners of mares of Mercer and adjoining counties to breed to Red Leaf—1st, Because he is not for sale; I expect to keep him and breed and handle his produce, and it is very natural that I will work for the sale of all his colts at high prices, no matter to whom they belong. 2nd, Because his colts have a reputation and have sold for higher prices and developed than those of any stallion in Mercer or adjoining counties. 3rd, Because his colts have taken more premiums than those of any stallion in Mercer or adjoining counties. 4th, Because he has a better record as a race horse, having won 10 out of 13 races, and a better record as a show horse, having won 58 out of 63 shows, than any stallion in Mercer or adjoining counties. 5th, Because Red Leaf is the only horse sired by a horse with a record of 2:18 (C. F. Clay), who has sired 8 colts with records better than 2:13, and with a dam (Lady Hart) that every colt she had took a standard record and was a winner, and whose grand-dam (Soprano) was the greatest brood mare in the world, having 11 in the list, and whose sire (C. F. Clay) sold for $6,000, and whose dam sold for $1,500, whose dam's sire (Red Wilkes) sold for $30,000 for a half interest, and who himself (Red Leaf) sold at 3 years old for $1,000 and at 14 years old for $1,750 and that has himself sired 14 colts to sell for over $200—some as high as $2,000—and teams from $1,500 to $3,000, in Mercer and adjoining counties. 6th, But three of Red Leaf's colts were ever trained for speed and they all took records. 7th, But one of Red Leaf's colts was raced, and he started in 11 or 12 races winning first in one and second in all the others, as shown by the Year book, and showed miles in 2:15, and would have been a sensational horse had he lived. 8th, Red Leaf has sired more high-class, high-priced teams than any stallion in Kentucky in the past two years. 9th, I can show several offers of over $3,000 for a pair I now have. None of those sold were five years old, and most of them under three years.

Now I say if you want a trotter, Red Leaf is bred to get them, as his sire is one of the world's greatest sires of extreme speed, and his dam a great producer, and she by one of the world's greatest sires of speed (Red Wilkes), and his sire's dam the greatest brood mare in the world. If you want a show horse, he has proven he can get them of the highest quality, a three-year-old mare when him showing through the circuit in regular and sweepstakes and winning 24 out of 26 shows—something equaled only by the world's famous Gipsy Queen. If you want a business horse, he can get them that will sell for the highest dollars, and his fillies are sure to be great brood mares. If these are not facts, why not?

I also have a good Black Jack, to stand at $8 to insure a living colt.

R. E. GODDARD, Burgin, Ky.
